FORTIETH YEAR NO. 19

CUT OVER LANDS OF COAST SECTION WILL BE REVENUE PRODUCING

Pecans, Poultry, Tung Oil and Diversified Crops to Replace Yellow Pine Timber—Expand Farming and Help Farmers Make Money.

By W. D. ROBINSON
Pass Christian.

Jackson county is laying the foundation for permanent prosperity by developing its natural resources and advantages and expanding its agricultural and horticultural industries. The county has large pay rolls in the established industries at Pascagoula, Moss Point and Ocean Springs. Now it is proposed to turn the cut-over lands into a revenue producing area.

Steps have already been taken in this direction. Pecan production, beginning many years ago, has grown gradually until it has become a major industry. Last year over 1,000,000 pounds of pecans were produced in Jackson county, with a money value of about $250,000. Pecans have taken the place of pine on some of the cut-over land.

Last year some of the leading citizens, realizing that something must be done to utilize the large acreage in the county that has been denuded of yellow pine timber, launched a movement to expand farming and help the farmer make money.

Meetings were held and the Jackson County Agricultural Association was organized, with Hermes Gautier, president; W. C. Havens, secretary, and R. L. Head, manager. After a thorough discussion, it was decided to specialize with English peas and snap beans this spring. Fifty-four farmers signed up, later others joined and now the association has about 100 members.

Production of English peas was very successful. Seventy-four acres were planted and a total of 15 cars were shipped during the season just closed. The final result has been so gratifying that it is proposed to increase the pea crop to 200 or 300 acres next season. Other vegetable crops will be added. The bean crop is now moving to market.

The association is marketing all of its products under the "Singing River" brand. This name is taken from the Pascagoula River, which is known in song and story as the "Singing River."

Jackson county farmers and housewives are being aided in their work by A. J. Franklin, county agricultural agent, and Mrs. Iola Havens, home demonstration agent, with headquarters at Pascagoula. Both are performing invaluable service to the county.

Another organization that is getting results is the United Poultry Producers, with headquarters at Ocean Springs. It is a co-operative association, with H. L. Giro as manager. The association was organized Sept. 1, 1928, and has about 112 members. Now it has a total of 112 members, with 25,000 laying hens. During the first year of its operation the association sold poultry and eggs to the value of $38,500. The egg shipments average 150 cases per week.

What promises to be one of the most important industries in Jackson county is the growing of Chinese tung trees and the production of tung oil. Started within recent years, it has reached large proportions. Tung trees are taking the place of yellow pine on much of the cut-over land. Over 100,000 tung trees are now growing in the county.

The tung oil tree business began in the county about four years ago, when Henry Bryant, president of the Century Fence Company of Waukesha, Wis., came south looking for a new field. He was very much impressed with the tung oil industry, which was in its infancy there at that time.

Later he came to Pascagoula and made some substantial investments in real estate, both along the beach and in the interior of the county. Shortly thereafter he decided that the tung oil industry was one of the best bets for this coastal region. By way of experiment he planted about 100 trees on some of the acreage which he had purchased. Within a few months the trees had shown such remarkable growth that he concluded to give in the matter further study.

After a thorough investigation and study of the industry as he was able to make, Mr. Bryant was definitely convinced that first, the tung oil industry was to become a very profitable one, and second, that due to the climate and rainfall along the Mississippi Coast, this section was ideally adapted to the production of tung oil nuts.

Thereafter, the Southern China-wood Oil Company was organized, with a capital of $50,000. The company is a Wisconsin corporation and all of the stock with the exception of a small amount owned by W. M. Colmer of Pascagoula, is owned by Wisconsin people. The directors are Henry Bryant, H. P. Redmond, C. E. McCollum, J. E. Patton, and W. M. Colmer, all of whom are from Milwaukee and Waukesha, Wis., with the exception of Mr. Colmer.

TROOP NO. 208 BOY SCOUTS RECEIVE CHARTER THURSDAY NIGHT

R. D. Crow, Scout Executive of New Orleans Council Makes Presentation.

An event of importance last week was the presentation of the charter to the recently organized Troop No. 208, Boy Scouts of America.

This presentation was made Thursday, April 30, 7:30 P. M. at the Yacht Club. The Clement R. Bontemps Post No. 139, American Legion, is sponsoring this troop, and its members are highly elated over the enthusiastic spirit which is being shown by the boys and their parents.

R. D. Crow, Scout executive of the New Orleans Council, under whose jurisdiction the Gulf Coast troops operate, made the presentation of the charter and certificates to the committee.

The parents of the members of the troop were present and were very agreeably surprised at the manner in which their boys executed their scout maneuvers and drills.

The troop is about 75 per cent unformed and will be completely so in about two weeks. Two beautiful American flags, complete have been presented the troop by Mrs. S. J. Bopp, whose son is a member.

The second master, Dr. E. J. Anderson, whom all praise is due for the successful manner in which the troop has been organized, opened the ceremonies by introducing Mr. Crow, and the members of both the District and the troop committees.

Mr. Gordon Bicknell, chairman of the District Committee, was master of ceremonies. Making an appropriate and congratulatory address to the troop members, Mr. Crow followed, with a talk explaining the Boy Scout movement and directed a great part of his speech to the boys, detailing to them the importance of their membership and how much greater their prospects are to become men of worth and assets to the community in which they live. In closing his address he presented the charter to the troop committee. Laurent Dickson, commander of Post No. 139, American Legion, accepted the charter due to the absence of the chairman of this committee. Mr. Dickson addressed the gathering, mentioning the fact that sponsoring Boy Scout troops was a part of their program to child welfare work. In his talk he stressed much stress on their motto, "Be Prepared!" He compared the Boy Scouts with the American Legion, as being always prepared to meet any emergency.

A. groups in the Coast area and has been greeted on all occasions with enthusiastic welcome because of the fine talks which she gives. The Waveland address was another of the inspirational addresses which stressed the Value of Play in the life of men, pointing out that men play for too little.

A brief business session was held. A social hour in which everyone met the other followed the program. Announcement was made that the Waveland school will hold its commencement exercises the night of May 22 and that school will close May 23. REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING OF C. OF C. HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

Regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at their offices in the Masonic Temple on Main street.

The subject of Natural Gas being the main objective for this month. Mr. Geo. R. Rea, President of the C. of C. placed the situation before the members stating that without the cooperation of the individual it will be impossible to bring the gas in. If one would stop to think what Natural Gas would mean to this community they would not doubt put their shoulders to the wheel and help in every way to make this proposition possible.

Letters have been sent to the Coast Chambers of Commerce in regard to their interest in "Day Light Savings Time." If our people would work by sun time instead of central time it would give them more time for recreation after hours in the evening before dark. All New York Exchanges are using day-light saving time, which makes two hours difference in our time.

Several letters have been received from the Coast C. of C's. If Bay St. Louis people are interested, kindly send the Chamber of Commerce your views.

SHOWER ARRANGED FOR EMERGENCY HOSPITAL MAY 19

Everyone Is Invited to Participate in Gifts to the Local Hospital

A shower of miscellaneous gifts for the King's Daughters Emergency Hospital will be held Tuesday, May 19, throughout the day, with a reception beginning at 2 o'clock and continuing through the evening. Everyone in the community is asked to participate in this shower presenting to the hospital much needed articles. Especially needed are lines of every kind with the greatest need for sheets and pillow cases. Any kind of material which may be utilized at the hospital will be welcomed gladly.

Last year a most successful shower was given the hospital at which time many articles of furniture were supplied and much linen added to the supply which was greatly appreciated by those in charge of the hospital. An appeal is made to the public to assist. It is believed that the hospital has proven its worth in the community and the many treated show that the institution is valuable here. The King's Daughters and Sons Circle which operates the hospital are conducting it purely for the good of the community and it has served more charity cases than pay and that expenses for its continuance must be obtained through the generosity of the public.

Mrs. E. J. Leonard, president of the circle, stated in advance of the shower that the thanks and deep appreciation of the King's Daughters and Sons will be given to all who contribute to this worthy enterprise.

FEDERAL OFFICER BROTHER TO COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

Man Shot From Ambush Is Brother of D. J. Everett Of Bay St. Louis.

Homer Everett, 34, federal prohibition agent from Jackson, who was shot from ambush and killed Saturday near Collins, was the brother of D. J. Everett of Bay St. Louis, county superintendent of education. Mr. and Mrs. Everett and son attended the funeral which was held in Jackson Monday morning at Cedar Lawn cemetery.

The deceased was engaged in his work and was en route to attend court at Mendham when the shooting occurred. He had been on the Coast and was one of the outstanding men of the law enforcement force in this section. He is survived by his wife and two little girls.

RESIDENT OUT FOR CO. ATTORNEY

W. W. Stockstill Formally Announces For County Office—Has Varied Official Experience.

W. W. Stockstill, well-known Hancock county attorney and resident of Bay St. Louis, is formally announced in this issue of the County Paper as a candidate for county attorney, and in an interview with The Echo stated exactly his opinion of the duties of the county prosecuting attorney, as quoted below.

Mr. Stockstill is well known over the county having served Hancock in various official capacity. He served two terms of four years each as county superintendent of education, and later filled an unexpired term of four and a half months as circuit and chancery clerk.

Mr. Stockstill also served as the attorney of the Board of Supervisors. It can consistently be said he made good "in all of these positions serving well the county and acquitting himself with credit."

In an interview with a reporter of The Echo, Mr. Stockstill said: "The duties of the county prosecuting attorney are very clearly defined by law and are set forth in Sections 4225 and 4226 of the new Mississippi code. The most of these duties begin when a person has been arrested and brought into court, charged with a violation of the law, and end when the case has been decided by a jury or a justice of the peace, as the case may be. His duties in the grand jury room are not so clearly defined, but in my opinion should be limited to an examination of the witnesses when requested to do so, and advising the grand jury on questions of law when likewise requested. If elected I expect to perform these duties fairly and impartially, and to the very best of my ability, but do not propose to try to perform any of the duties, or to assume any of the responsibilities which the law imposes upon someone else. I shall at all times endeavor to conduct the affairs of the office in a sane and conservative manner."

"A man's record as a private citizen is a pretty good indication of what may be expected of him when he is elected to office. Actions speak louder than words, and I point to the record of my private life in this community over a long period of years as an evidence of what may be expected of me along certain lines, if I should be elected."

"If elected, I shall endeavor to save the county as much court expense as possible. This, of course, is a matter over which the county attorney has but little control, but I shall at all times use my best efforts to reduce such expenses to a minimum."

The Echo commends Mr. Stockstill's formal announcement, as it appears in The Sea Coast Echo, county official journal, to the consideration of the voters.

A Correction

In last week's Echo an ad of C. B. Mollere, of Waveland, it was stated that on May 1st their Fish Market would be opened. This was in error, as the correct opening date is today, Friday, May 8th.

Mr. Van Bickirk, former chef of the Edgewater Gulf Hotel will manage the fish market in the Mollere store.

Lambias or "Lum" Martin, 37 year old farmer and school bus driver, was shot at his home in the Standard Community between 1 and 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, and died some two hours later just as he arrived at the door of the King's Daughters Hospital in Gulfport to which he had been rushed by a neighbor, Alex Ladner, who hearing the shots had gone to the home. The funeral for the deceased was held Wednesday.

Details of the fatal shooting as secured by Hancock county officers, Deputy Sheriffs Joseph Bontemps and Lander Nacaise, having investigated the shooting, and given to the press quote the wife as having stated that she heard shots and she and her 14-year-old daughter rushed out of their house and found Martin lying shot with a bullet through his forehead. She is quoted further as stating that some time before persons whom she did not know, probably two men and a woman, arrived in an auto and sought to purchase liquor from Martin, that after the deal had been consummated and the liquor placed on the auto the men said they would not pay for the liquor, that Martin said, "We'll see about that," or words to that effect, that he rushed into the house and secured his single barrel shot gun and as he went out the shots were heard. She did not know who fired first but it is evident that Martin fired at least one shot as his gun was empty.

Local officers aided in the investigation by a brother and nephew of the deceased were seeking two men and a woman, said to have called at a brother's house earlier in the night and tried to buy liquor, this brother affirming that he could identify one of the men, and this same party is thought to be the same who went to the Martin home.

DEFICIT, 140 MILLIONS.

The Post Office Department will probably end the present fiscal year with a deficit of $140,000,000, according to Assistant Postmaster General Tilton, whose authorized statement explains:

"The deficiency of last year as well as that which is expected this year is caused to a great extent by the subsidies of the Department to the shipping and airplane industries. Because of these subsidies the Department must pay more for the carrying of the mails via airplane and ocean steamers than it would if the mail was carried by ships flying foreign flags and trains in this country."

Every once in a while we hear big business men say the "government should stay out of business." That only is heard, however, when governmental activity decreases profits in the interest of the consumer. When such interference means help in the way of subsidies or more profits through tariff rates these same business leaders think, the government's going into business is fine!

A DIRECT BLOW TO GOVERNMENT

The good name of South Mississippi has been done much injury through the assassination of H. L. Everett, an investigator for the prohibition department, and it is to be hoped that the perpetrator of the foul deed will soon be brought to justice. That no effort will be spared by the department to run to earth the guilty party is assured, as the killing of the investigator was a direct blow to the government itself.

BARBOR BEING SUED

W. L. Barbor, Biloxi distributor of "boot-leg" gasoline, is being sued for $9,367 by Attorney General Mitchell for unpaid gasoline taxes, permits and penalties to the State and Harrison county. The suit when filed was accompanied by a supreme court fiat signed by Chief Justice Sidney Smith enjoining Barbor from doing further business in Mississippi until the amount sought has been paid.

We never could understand why old men were so much worried about the way the flappers acted; they were certainly safe, not to say immune.

About three-fourths of the criticism of the church and preachers comes from those who know they are doing what the church condemns.

You can change the whole philosophy of life for some people by pinning a little piece of ribbon on them, with the printed word "committee."

Last week, we chronicle, was set aside for four different purposes and the man or woman who observed them all didn't have time for anything else.

The people who make money out of the mail order business laugh at the man who thinks he ought to help his own town. They call him a "sap."

Up to this writing no bright pupil has written a letter to the school trustees of Hancock County asking that schools be extended beyond the normal term.

Daniel E. Sullivan, city attorney of Hattiesburg for the past twenty-five years, died Sunday from a heart attack. He was one of the foremost lawyers in the State.

A gang of kidnapers seized James Hackett, former gambler and wealthy road house proprietor in a Chicago suburb last Friday. They received $150,000 ransom money when he was released two days later.

The several bus lines operating throughout the State have been cited to appear before the railroad commission at its May meeting for the purpose of adopting uniform rates. At present the rates vary on different lines on the same scale.

George F. Baker, reputed to be one of the richest men in the United States, died at his home in New York City last Saturday. He was known as the "Sphinx of Wall Street" and "the man of silence." It is reported that at his death he controlled interests valued at $1,368,250,000.

In his charge to the grand jury recently in Smith county, Judge E. M. Lane asserted that there were people drawing pensions in that county who were only four years old during the Civil War. If such a thing be true, the clerk of the courts and members of the pension board should be prosecuted and sent to prison.

COUNTRY $800,000,000 IN HOLE

The Administration has counted the government cash and finds that the country is $800,000,000 in the hole, the existing condition being the worst since the Civil War, excepting only the World War days. Things will be better next year, it is said. The Republican party is strong on what it is going to do, but modestly reticent about its present responsibility.

CANNOT AFFORD TO MAKE MISTAKE

With every promise of winning the presidency in 1932, the Democratic party cannot afford to make any mistake in writing the platform on which it will wage the campaign. There will be no need for the adoption of "a harmonious policy on the prohibition question," as some party leaders are now advocating. That issue can and should be met by a declaration that prohibition is a matter for each State to settle, and not one which the whole sisterhood of States has any right to participate. That the South is "bone dry" cannot be disputed, but it is not so arid that it will desert the Democratic party even should its national convention put forth a "dripping wet" platform, therefore the chance of winning the election would not be jeopardized. Beyond all doubt a Democratic victory can not be won without the electoral votes of New York, Massachusetts, and Illinois, all of which are overwhelmingly wet.

NO REGARD FOR WELFARE OF THE PEOPLE

Even after a majority of the members of the legislature had adopted a resolution giving Governor Bilbo assurance that no move to looking to an investigation would be made, he still refused to call a special session in order that needed legislation might be enacted to relieve the State from the most embarrassing position it has ever faced. On the contrary he had the audacity to tell the legislators that "if they are not interested enough in the welfare of Mississippi and her institutions to sign the pledge, then forget about it." Has any other State ever elevated a man to the exalted position of chief executive who had so little regard for the welfare of the people who elected him? We doubt it—as there has never been but one Bilbo.

RESIGNATION REQUESTED.

The resignation of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., has been requested in a petition to the semi-annual meeting of the college of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. It will be remembered that Bishop Cannon was acquitted by the last quarterly conference of the church and later by a group of elders of charges based upon his anti-Smith campaign in 1928 and other allegations never made public, is described as "doing the church untold harm." The petition just filed recites: "Reports that gravely reflect on the moral character of Bishop Cannon have been published throughout the country and he has made no public statement that would vindicate himself or that would relieve the church of the embarrassment which she suffers by reason of the fact that he is one of her bishops." It begins to look as if the politico-stock-gambling bishop faces hard sledding and there will be no more whitewashing for him.

MISSISSIPPI'S INTERESTS FIRST

It is too early to say who will be the next governor of Mississippi, but The Echo is of the opinion that the successful candidate will owe his nomination to his refusal to appeal to factionalism. The people are tired and disgusted with the way politics have been conducted the past few years, and are in no humor to listen to such appeals. What they want now—and what the State needs—is a chief executive who puts the interests of Mississippi above every other consideration. Only a patriot and a statesman can rescue and bring the old commonwealth back to her ancient moorings and restore her to the once proud place she occupied when Stone, Lowry and Longino were at the helm of our Ship of State.

HARD TO UNDERSTAND

The people of Mississippi cannot understand why Governor Bilbo is so opposed to any investigation that the members of the legislature might care to make touching his official conduct. If a public official is innocent of no wrong doing of any character or description, he should court investigation of his every act, but Theodore is pursuing tactics which arouses suspicion in the minds of his friends as well as his enemies. In the meanwhile Mississippi's good name suffers and her educational and other institutions are threatened with closure.

LACK OF ENFORCEMENT THE CAUSE

No one who has read the daily papers during recent weeks cannot but be appalled at the crime reports printed from day to day. Murders, robberies and other crimes fill press columns, and no section of the country has escaped the stigma which attaches to such happenings. Can this wave of crime be attributed to any other cause than the lax enforcement of the law? We believe not. The frequency with which juries in all parts of the country acquit those charged with capital crimes has emboldened the lawless element to commit murder with impunity.

TO FILE CHARGES FOR DISBARMENT

Hon. W. W. Venable, of Clarksdale, was elected president of the Mississippi bar association at its meeting in Meridian last week. Among other business transacted by the association was announcement that charges would be filed in the supreme court for the disbarment of Rush H. Knox, former attorney general, and Cecil Inman. Specific charges or the information on which to base them were withheld. Knox, who resigned his office under threat of impeachment, is again a candidate for attorney general.

A MINOR MENACE

Congressman Robert S. Hall made an address before the Kiwanis Club of Hattiesburg a few days ago in which he declared that the danger from the Soviet doctrine of government is a minor menace so far as this country is concerned but the threat of economic danger to us is real and imminent. Congressman Hall is in a position to speak on this important question, having been a member of the congressional commission appointed to study communistic activities.

VIEWS OF OUR NEWS
By Chicagoan

Chicago, Ill., May 5.—Well, here's the good old Sea Coast Echo again. I've been waiting for it this week, I'll admit, for if there's any way to find out what's going on in the Coast country, it's through reading the Echo which reflects the actions and thoughts of the people of the community far more clearly than they sometimes realize. I may even be able to determine from this week's issue whether the Bay folks are prepared to meet prosperity as all of us have been advised to be by speakers on the radio recently. All last night I had before me the sad prospect of prosperity's return only to find the people unprepared.

Well, see here! Right on the front page, I'm told that National Music Week will be observed in Bay St. Louis, and that the several members of the committee headed by Mrs. H. U. Carty each will have charge of a program during the week. Music, like the printed page, depicts life; sometimes its sadness, sometimes its joys, yes and sometimes its abandon. Anyway, those who attend any of the Schubert Club programs will agree that the time thus spent must be added to the other good times they've had.

And to Mrs. E. J. Leonhard, says the Echo, there came the honor of being again named District Deputy of the O. E. S., while to Mrs. Fred Wright went the distinction of Grand Master. The ebb and flow of currency's tide has no effect on the esteem which people hold for each other. Mrs. Leonhard and Mrs. Wright are rich in the confidence of their fellow members. If they were not possessed of the right qualities, their stocks and bonds might soar in price, but they would be poor indeed.

Then in San Antonio, under the gay lights of the Fiesta de San Jacinto, Chas. G. Moreau conversed with his contributor and friend, John T. Meyers, and extolled the warriors of the Gulf Coast. Mr. Meyers was impressed with the sincerity of our editor's words, his article in last week's paper clearly revealed. I, too, have been in San Antonio during Fiesta time. I have seen the carpet of bluebonnets which covers the hillside adjacent to that ancient and beautiful city. So I know that Mr. Moreau is rich in enthusiasm to have impressed a native San Antonian of the beauties of another section, especially when his visit took place when the beauty of South Texas is at its height.

Now you take my doleful associate, "Grouchy Gus." He insists that there is no such thing as continued prosperity . . . or even moments of glee. He says he has approached and having some fun at a ball game, but that his favorite batsman struck out every time he came to the plate. Had Gus attended the recent game between Waveland and Bay St. Louis, reported in last week's Echo, he probably would have been a Waveland fan. And when J. Boncompagni and the Blaize's, G. and E. founded out Pitcher Telhard's offerings for five runs, as against the four scored by Waveland, Gus would have said, "That's the way it goes. Waveland can't win that ball game, you see what I told you."

But, according to last week's paper, Mrs. D. H. Boyle has let to Garcia and Carr a contract for the rebuilding of the Tulane Hotel. Don't sing a song of depression to such folks as Mrs. Boyle, for you will have your labor for your pains. They won't even hear your plaintive wail. They are like the men in the poem who, "While their companions slept, were toiling upward in the night."

And since prosperity, like everything according to Mr. Einstein, is relative, did you notice in last week's paper that Maxwell House Coffee was selling at 29c the pound at the Self Store; that C. B. Mollere of Waveland offered 10 pounds of first class sugar for 48c and that the Boston Shoe Store put forth a wonderful Oxford at the low price of $2.85? Well, if you didn't you missed one of the best news in the paper, which also included A. D. Benvenuti's prescription for that sore back you get after mowing a large lawn. Have the lawn mower sharpened in the right way, says A. D., and from the size of his advertisement last week, I'm willing to bet that quite a few took his advice and found it good.

Well, be that as it may, the Echo went as far away as Hammond, Indiana last week for a fish story. And such a story as it was. It took the breath away from many an old croaker fisher of the bays. A Hugh Volkman, so goes the story, suffered a series of mishaps, any one of which would have deserved a less intrepid soul, and there went a croaker after his catch. When they fished Hugo out of the water, he was holding the large fish, presumably by the tale. All of which lead me to the conclusion that Mr. Volkman was a "fishy" tale.

Further news of depression, Jack and W. H. Lett, of Kiln and Picayune, respectively, says the Echo, was recently invited to appear before the United States Commissioner at Biloxi to answer charges of having violated the "dry" act. If they were engaged as it is alleged they were, it is possible that the two gentlemen mentioned were enjoying a measure of prosper-

CURRENT COMMENT

For The Sea Coast Echo.
General Allenby, who ought to know, says that we need the discipline and service that go with war, without the horror of war itself.

Shakespeare thought that Bohemia had a sea coast. If he were living today, he could get at the facts firsthand in an air trip of a few hours. Records are being broken daily in aerial transportation. Captain Hawks claims the newest honor. He flew from Paris to London in less than an hour.

President Lamora works twenty hours a day, hopeful for the future of Spain. Alphonso says that he is still king, and is buoyed up accordingly. Don Jaime of the House of Bourbon announces that he is the man of the hour, and he has a fighting chance. Al's aunt, at 79, slips quietly out of life, two days after her flight from Spain. She had nothing to hope for from the future. When disaster comes, the old folks are sure to get the worst of it.

Eight men, under sentence of death, refuse Communist aid. The motives that prompted each of them to refuse the proffered help have not been divulged, but let it be assumed that they considered it more honorable to be a dead elfen than a live Communist.

Twenty thousand letters written by and to Stephen A. Douglas have just been found. Probably there are more letters eighty years old in existence than there are which bear a date twenty years in the past. Letter writing is an abandoned custom, in this country, at least. It may not be so in China. Bandits in that land, who are holding a missionary for ransom, are willing to take part payment in fountain pens.

It is a long lane that has no turning. General Smedley D. Butler, who was called on the carpet a while ago for talking about Mussolini, lands a shot which is well placed on the general target of foreign officials even though it did not hit the rapacious ring represented by the Italian premier. The minister from Haiti said that he had never heard of a fort in that country which Smedley claimed to have captured, but it turns out that the diplomat himself was present when General Butler was given a medal by Haiti for doing the job.

A bird flew into the propeller of an English airplane and brought the machine to the ground. The incident suggests the extreme delicacy of aircraft, and the instability of the medium in which they ride. Some genius may yet devise a plan for bringing down planes in time of war, which will be as simple as dropping a toothpick into a typewriter.

The Italian-French racket about the relative sizes of the natives of those countries seems to be progressing to the point of a complete disagreement, and England gets the blame for the failure of negotiations. The arguments and figures submitted are hard for an ordinary man to understand. The Swiss navy, alone seems to be the only factor that does not have an important bearing on one side or the other of the row.

A Pregnant Court Decision.

Here is a fact worthy of consideration in connection with cattle ticks, fence laws and straying domestic animals! California's supreme court has ruled that owners of animals permitted to stray unattended on a public highway are liable for damages if a collision occurs between an automobile and the animal. The California State Automobile Association's legal department has spread the news among automobiles of the Golden West, believing that a wide recognition of the law will cause cattle owners to keep their stock off the roads.

The court is quoted as follows: "Under any but exceptional circumstances the exercise of ordinary care will serve to keep unattended animals in their proper enclosures. In these days of rapid automobile transportation the extreme hazard to drivers and passengers presented by animals straying unattended on the roads cannot be overestimated. Especially at night, the driver is placed in a well-nigh helpless position because of the tendency of an animal to spring out of the darkness in front of a car. Drivers should be protected by having roads clear of such obstructions and every owner of live stock should make an earnest endeavor to control their movements with due care that lives may not be endangered."

The fact that the law has placed the correction of this offense upon the shoulders of the animal owners undoubtedly will free California for its time. But, as Grouchy says, "If you would say, something always happens." This time it may be that the government has interfered with a lucrative trade. We must wait further advice from the Coast front to learn whether or not anyone was placed in the hands of a "freecyker."

roads of many menacing estrays. A successful prosecution, such as the case above referred to, will how costly will be an instance of thoughtfulness or common negligence on the part of the animal owner.

Here in Louisiana we have this danger constantly before us, especially in those places where cattle are given the range of the roads so that the automobilist speeding as is his right, over state highways and other public thoroughfares, is in constant danger of crashing against cows, calves, hogs and pigs. If the car is wrecked, under the jurisprudence established by the California decision, the stock owner may have a lawsuit running high into the thousands against him instead of the contrary legal attitude of other days when the ruralist could claim, and often received, compensation for animals struck and injured by drivers upon the public roads.

Automobile speed that has revolutionized country travel, is now an accepted fact, and with it is recognized the menace of trespass upon the danger zone by animal property. The corrective is the maintenance of proper barriers on lands where animals are allowed to range.

Peo Harding, a fifth grade pupil will make her little pony "Princess" perform several clever tricks. Candy will be sold by the pupils of the third and fourth grades. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of the S. J. A. Memorial Hall. Don't fail to be there Saturday night at 8 P. M. Admission: Adults 20c children 10c.

SODALITY NEWS.

At a special meeting of the Children of Mary held last Tuesday, the Sodality chose the girl who would be S. J. A.'s nominee for the joint crowning to be held here on Sunday May 17. Four names had been proposed to the girls by the High School faculty.

The four girls judged by the high school teachers as outstanding Children of Mary were the Misses Evelyn Nix, Catherine Benvenuti, Elise Lizana and Catherine Scafide. Evelyn Nix received a great majority of the girls' votes and so will represent S. J. A.

SODALITY COAST MEET IN BILOXI.

The first meeting of the Coast Union of Children of Mary was held in Biloxi last Wednesday. Joan Mauffray and Marie Quintini represented S. J. A. at this meeting. The chief business of this session was a completion of the plans for the joint crowning on the 17th of May.

Each school presented its nominee for the May Day Festival and Miss Inez Duboussion of Long Beach was chosen by lot as Queen.

The nominees from the other schools will act as Maids to the queen. The crowning will take place at 3 o'clock, the procession is to form in the St. Joseph Academy Gym and will march to the church singing a hymn. At the close of a sermon in the church the Sodality will proceed to the shrine of Our Lady of the Woods where the Act of Consecration will be read and where the Queen chosen by the council will crown the statue of Our Blessed Mother. The procession will return to church singing hymns and the ceremonies will close with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

FATHER FAHEY TO ADDRESS SODALISTS.

This is "Vacation Week" special prayers are being said each day in connection with the May devotions to obtain vocations to the Priesthood and the Religious Life. Instead of their regular Sodality meeting Thursday, the Children of Mary will have the pleasure of hearing a talk on "Vocations" by the Rev. Father Leo Fahey.

MARY'S DAY TO BE OBSERVED.

Saturday will be observed throughout the United States as Mary's Day. The Sodality of St. Joseph Academy and St. Stanislaus College will unite in celebrating it. They will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body Saturday morning at six-thirty. Hymns will be sung during the Mass.

SWIMMING TIME IS HERE AGAIN.

The boarders were exultant Saturday afternoon when after much pleading they really got permission to go swimming. Shouts of joy filled the basement when the announcement was made. Ten minutes however was all that they would be allowed for this first swim—but as the cries testified everyone was thankful for even that little time.

Daily, since Saturday, at three o'clock a happy line of girls may be seen wending its way to the wharf. Needless to say the "swimming period" is just now the most popular period in the boarders day.

THE END OF THE DAY. (As it used to be)

When night was fast approaching
And the sun had gone to hide
That is just the time when
The folks at home
Gathered round the fireside.

There they'd tell the joys and sorrows
That occurred since last they met
They each had their own story
Of the day and how it was spent.

Their stories may have been sorrowful,
And again they may have been gay;
But you'd always find
The hour they liked,
Was the one at the end of the day.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT?

The Junior Class held a meeting Monday.
We get a holiday next Thursday.
Exams are less than two weeks off.

MOTHER'S DAY

By JOHN T. MEYERS
(For The Sea Coast Echo)

Sunday, May 10th, is Mother's Day. Throughout the nation sons and daughters will pay a just and beautiful tribute to Mother. And while we are paying this respect that custom has established, it might make the loving heart of Mother just a bit more happy and content if we place our arms about her and tell her that every day in our lives belongs to Mother dear.

On this day it would mean so much to Mother if we would reveal our innermost appreciation for the tender, kind, and devoted care she has bestowed upon us from the time we were helpless infants until we reached manhood and womanhood.

And if your revelation of pent up emotion brings a lump to your throat, and unchecked tears moist your eyes do not be ashamed for Mother will understand that in deep sense of understanding that has been part of Mothers' great love for their children throughout the ages of existence. Tell this earthly angel, your Mother, that her many acts of self denial, the trying hours of anxiety over your welfare, the heart-aches you have caused her in thoughtless moments, and the sacrifices she has made to give you a chance in life have not been in vain. Kiss the sweet lips of Mother as you hold her tenderly in your arms, and make known to her the fact that your heart is overflowing with love and respect for all the wonderful kindness she has ever shown toward you.

Tell Mother that any character you might have developed, or any success you might have accomplished in this world's affairs is the result of the lessons learned at her knee when a child. Remind her that today when you act with fairness, honesty, and generosity toward your fellowmen, these acts and deeds are the result of the pure doctrines she kindled in your soul when you were—just her little baby boy or girl.

The reflection of appreciation that will reach Mother's sweet face in tender smiles will be your reward. And when we are alone we should get humbly down upon bended knees and pray the Almighty that we may always be worthy of our Mother's love.

WAVELAND SENTINELS DEFEAT PASS PIRATES

The Pirates of Pass Christian could not plainly see Bob Condon's cannon ball delivery under the dark clouds at Waveland, and while sixteen Buccaneers walked the plank via the strikeout route the Sentinels chalked up a 11 to 3 victory without any trouble.

Condon pitched the full nine innings and not until the eighth inning did he issue a free pass. During the fourth and fifth frames he struck out five in a row.

Lefty Spikes might have turned in a better pitching performance but for the loose support of his team mates. The Pirates made five errors not including a number of wild pitches and passed balls. The Pirate pitcher fanned eleven Sentinels.

The Bourgeois family furnished the aggressive punch in batting in runs. "T. J." Bourgeois knocked in three with his two doubles and a single in five trips to the plate while Fred secured three bingles and Sidney hit twice. Telhard's double scored the sixth earned run while the balance came on Pirates miscues.

Mayor Schwartz of Waveland pitched the first ball and Mayor Spence of Pass Christian caught it in the pre-game ceremonies that opened Waveland's home schedule in the new park during a steady drizzle of rain.

COMMENT ON SPORTS BY SHERIDAN

HERE'S A FARCE. FANS WANT RING ACTION. FERRELL'S NO-HIT GAME. AFTER TWO WEEKS. CANNONER'S CROWNS.

The New York State Athletic Commission, after much speculation has designated the Carnera-Sharkey fight in June as for the world's heavyweight championship. The action follows reports of such a scheme which have been circulating since Cleveland was designated as the scene of the Stribling-Schmeling fracas in July.

There is no use in getting excited but the action of the commission will have little weight. It amounts to a joke, except for the fact that it complicates matters. The situation is getting tight with efforts being made to restrain Carnera from fighting in June, because of alleged contracts to the contrary.

Maybe the boxing promoters think they are going to build up interest in the heavyweight situation by such manoeuvres, but they are mistaken. What the public wants is action in the ring, and when this is given there will be spectators enough to show that boxing can outdraw wrestling.

Wes Ferrell, winning his fourth victory, stopped the St. Louis Browns without a hit, and thus pitched the first no-run game in the majors since Carl Hubbell made monkey out of the Pirates in May, 1928. Ferrell allowed only six men to get to first base, where they stopped. Three were walked and three got there on errors. Besides he struck out eight men.

Looking over the field after two weeks of campaigning one is inclined to agree with President John Hoyer, of the National League, who thinks the new baseball is making his pitchers more effective. Only three regular batters bat 400 or better in the senior circuit, and there are not as many 300 hitters as you might expect. However, it is too early to be sure of anything.

Among the hurlers the first two weeks one finds a few with records of two and three won, without losses. These included Grimes, Root, Seibold, Brandt and Mitchell in the National and Penneck, Caraway, Walberg, Hudli and McKain in the American. Wes Ferrell had four out of five to his credit, which is some start, if you ask us.

Cannoner's victory over Jack Berg gave him the Englishman's crown. Tony knocked out the Englishman in the third round of their scheduled ten round battle and thus holds two titles lightweight and junior lightweight. Speaking of championships, Tom Donohue, representing the National Boxing Commission, lists Young Stribling as No. 1 contender against Schmeling, placing Sharkey next.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

MISSISSIPPI PAYS PRICE OF NEGLECT.

(Tuscaloosa Daily News)

The bankers of Mississippi have shown both wisdom and foresight in coming to the rescue of the state when it was threatened with default upon certain of its bonds on May 1, but the existence of such a threat certainly constitutes no tribute to the people of that state.

The financial integrity of the state is essential to the wellbeing of every institution within its borders, and the outside world no doubt read with amazement that the citizens of Mississippi had permitted that great commonwealth to get into a situation where its credit is under suspicion.

Too much politics and too little sound judgment is the answer to the situation. Mississippi has been too often disposed to listen to demagogues and too little disposed to look for efficiency in the administration of public affairs. The people have played politics until the financial structure of the state is threatened and until its once great educational institutions have been sadly crippled.

The yhave subordinated the weighty matters of clean and efficient government to the trivial and flimsy of political showmanship, and will continue to pay the penalty until they perform an about-front.

Mississippi is a great state; it has produced many great men, and it is capable of much greater things than now appear. But it must turn to its able and patriotic leaders if it is to obtain a government that is in keeping with the fundamental characteristics of the people as a whole.

COUNTY BOARD TRUSTEES NAMED

In accordance with the new educational law of election of the members of the county board of education, Hancock County named five members of the board Saturday of last week. The new plan calls for the election of the county board by the members of the trustees from the various school districts of the county. About 40 per cent of the county trustees assembled at the court house and elected the new board, the member from beat 1 to serve 1 year, from beat 2 two years, etc., with the final serving five years and as the terms expire the new member will in turn serve five years.

Lamar Otis was elected from beat 1 to succeed D. L. Russ and will serve one year. John W. Root will serve two years in beat 2 succeeding W. E. Thigpen. Willie Ladner will serve three years from beat 3 succeeding R. W. Lee. Sylvester Ladner will be beat 4 member serving four years succeeding Albert Necaise. R. J. Ladner was reelected from beat 5 to serve 5 years.

ORPHANS TRAINED FOR CITIZENSHIP AND INDEPENDENCE

Jackson, Miss.—Conforming to the educational theory of training children for complete citizenship, which includes economic independence, The Mississippi Baptist Orphanage has an interesting program.

On the Orphanage farm the boys are taught truck raising, dairying, poultry raising, the growing of hogs and other live stock, as well as, general farming. The boys are also taught to operate all the machinery, to make repairs in the buildings, mend shoes, to do the barber work, etc., of the home. The girls are taught to cook, sew, mend, keep their rooms and buildings clean, neat and attractive. Also, to beautify the home and grounds.

When the program is completely worked out and put into operation each child will be prepared for economic independence, when he leaves the home. Since the work is done by the children; it considerably reduces the expenses of the operation of the home. At the present, the crops on the Orphanage farm are among the best in this section. The dairy herd provides more milk per cow, than any other herd nearby, and the children are well fed on well cooked food.

In addition to the religious and moral training, and go to school, as do other children.

INDIGESTION

"My work is confining, and often I eat hurriedly, causing me to have indigestion. Gas will form and I will smother and have pains in my chest."

"I had to be careful what I ate, but after someone had recommended Black-Draught and I found a small pinch after meals was so helpful, I soon was eating anything I wanted."

"Now when I feel the least smothering or uncomfortable bloating, I take a pinch of Black-Draught and get relief."

You get the most Value for the least Cost in Telephone service

Of all the things you buy there is none that gives so much for so little as telephone service.

Many times during the day or week or month, in the ordinary affairs of life and in emergencies you see evidence of the value of the telephone and realize the indispensable part it plays in every business and social activity.

Men transact a great part of their business over it. Women use it constantly to save steps and time in social and household duties. In an increasing number of ways, it adds to the comfort and security of family life.

Subscribers who look back over the month and consider what the telephone has meant to them are quick to appreciate its unequalled value and low price. They realize that it really doesn't pay to try to do without it.

BAY RAMBLERS DEFEAT SLIDELL IN CLOSE GAME

The Bay St. Louis Ramblers went on their first journey of this year to Slidell, where they defeated the Slidell Cardinals by a score of 13-8 on Sunday, May 3.

Next Sunday, May 10 at St. Stanislaus College Park the Yellow Jackets of New Orleans will come to sting the Ramblers, but we hope it will be the opposite way, as Ramblers sting the Jackets.

In Sunday's game Higgins was located for 4 hits, while J. Faciane was located for 14 hits. Higgins pitched wonderful ball for the Ramblers and was never in danger.

The public is invited to attend the game Sunday. The lineup for the Jackets' game will be as follows:

FORD BRAKES ARE UNUSUALLY EFFECTIVE

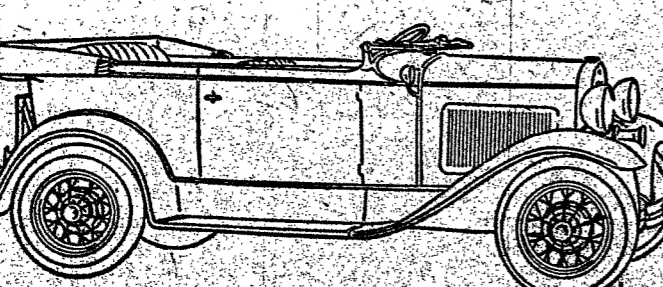

Reliability and safety
due to simple design and careful construction

ONE OF the first things you will notice when you drive the Ford is the quick, effective action of its four-wheel brakes.

They are unusually safe and reliable because they are mechanical, internal expanding, with all braking surfaces fully enclosed. This prevents mud, water, sand, etc., from getting between the band and drum and interfering with brake action.

Other outstanding features of the Ford are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, torque-tube drive, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, Rustless Steel, reliability, economy, and long life.

You save when you buy the Ford and you save every mile you drive.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL NOTES OF WEEK FROM WAVELAND AND VICINITY

V. E. WEBER Box 134
Waveland, Miss.

The regular monthly meeting held May 5 in the school auditorium with Mrs. A. F. Fournier, presiding.

A review of the work accomplished during the year and a program was outlined for work during the next school term.

The treasurer reported a healthy cash balance on hand.

The most interesting feature of the meeting was a masterly address by Mrs. C. C. Clark of Bay St. Louis.

The subject was "Home Training of the Child." Mrs. Clark is a very brilliant and pleasing orator and had her voice at all times under perfect control, every word reached her audience distinctly and was well versed with her subject.

There were quite a number of men present and all applauded at close of address.

Our president referred to Mrs. Clark as the silver tongue orator of the P. T. A. A compliment well deserved.

The meeting adjourned to first Wednesday in September.

Mr. Jas. McConnell is building a garage apartment in Steel Subdivision.

Mrs. M. Daugimont sold two building sites on Coleman, which were purchased by Mr. John Moore and Harold Zimmerman.

Mr. C. C. Brown will erect another cottage on his grounds, adjoining his beach home. This is the fourth cottage Mr. Brown has built in the past few months; all have been rented for the season.

We need more small cottages to take care of summer visitors and Mr. Brown has the right idea.

Mr. H. Laudon has leased his property for the summer, the Tom Anderson home on the beach and Waveland ave.

The Joubert family of New Orleans have leased for the summer the Cartwright Eustis home on the beach.

School Party

Last Friday evening, May 1st the girls sewing club of the Waveland school gave a party to the eighth grade pupils to celebrate the close of the club meetings for the summer, and the approaching close of the school year. Mrs. W. A. Mapp, Mrs. W. E. Tucker, Mrs. Sidney Carrio and Mrs. G. E. Schilling, patroness of the club were in charge.

Mrs. V. E. Weber, Miss Louise Armstrong and Mr. Foster Wolbrecht entertained with music. Ice cream and cakes were served, games played and the children danced the Old Virginia Reel, sung the old songs that we used to sing and had a great time in general.

Among the recent week-end visitors at the Thiel home on the beach, were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Johnson and little son; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gilmore and daughter; Mr. Colton Jones, Mrs. Gray Amos and Mr. Jack Gowan.

Mrs. M. Daugimont spent several days in New Orleans on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Loudan have moved from Jeff Davis to Coleman ave.

Mrs. B. McCreery of New Orleans spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Weber.

Mr. Norton Haas will leave for Natchez, Miss., to attend a business conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of New Orleans will spend a few weeks at the Sam Keene beach home.

Miss Gremont of New Orleans will spend several days visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Burg and daughter, Adelaide, had as their week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ruckert of New Orleans.

Mrs. L. C. Wilcox and Mrs. W. E. Tucker motored to New Orleans.

Miss Agnes Bourgeois has returned from New Orleans.

Mrs. Jenkins and her Brother Duncan motored to Clinton, La., to visit Mr. Jenkins who is connected with the Miller-Hutchinson Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Marengo wish to announce the birth of their son, Dr. A. P. Smith in attendance.

And times are said to be so hard for theatrical folks hereabouts that midgets are trying to get into orphan asylums. Pathfinder.

DON'T FORGET MOTHER'S DAY

Bay St. Louis Citizens Urged To Remember Mother on Sunday.

Just a little reminder to you folks who live in Bay St. Louis. Of course, it should not be necessary to remind you at all, but for fear that some one may permit business engagements and transactions to overshadow everything else, this little hint is given just at this time. Sunday, May 10 is Mother's Day.

Now that covers a span of only 24 hours, but in reality folks, every day is mother's day, no matter whether it is set aside for observance or not. She is the one person in all of this world to whom you owe everything. Just took that away under your hat and think it over. Back of every achievement which has been accomplished since the beginning of time, there was a mother.

Whether you've climbed the ladder to success, or whether you are still plodding along, don't forget your mother on May 10. If she is still with you, so much the better, she can see and appreciate what you do for her. If you are not so lucky, well, remember her in the way she would have had you do.

She may be old and wrinkled, but don't forget that you are still young. She is looking to you with much the same hope that she did when first you saw the light of day.

Remember her Sunday. Perhaps you may not be able to bestow costly gifts on her. Perhaps you may not be able to take her a gift of any kind that would call for an outlay of cash money. You can go to see her, and surely you can find a flower or two. She'll appreciate these just as much as though it was the costliest of gifts. Mothers are just that way.

If you can go to see her Sunday, do it. If you can't go, call her over the telephone and talk to her, and if this cannot be done, then send her a telegram or write her a letter which will reach her on that day.

Just remember this: you'll never have but one mother, and in her you have the closest friend you can ever have, and one who will stick to you through thick and thin. Stick to her as long as you can.

WILL HAVE TO GO SOME TO BEAT RECORD OF COAST

Various newspapers in different portions of the pean belt of the South have been publishing articles about the large yields of particular pean trees in their localities. Recently a Louisiana newspaper published an article about a 20-year-old pean tree in that State that produced 210 pounds of nuts in one season and bragged about it.

That's nothing to brag about. Ocean Springs has several individual pean trees that have beaten that record. The Beach Pean Nurseries at Ocean Springs has an 18-year-old Success pean tree that produced 330 pounds of peans in one year.

Other sections will have "to go some and then some" to beat the record of Ocean Springs pean trees. Ocean Springs is the place where the paper shell pean originated.

PAINS QUIT COMING

"When I was a girl, I suffered periodically with terrible pains in my back and sides. Often I would bend almost double with the intense pain. This would last for hours and I could get no relief."

"I tried almost everything that was recommended to me, but found nothing that would help until I began taking Cardui. My mother thought it would be good for me, so she got a bottle of Cardui and started me taking it. I soon improved. The bad spells quit coming. I was soon in normal health."

WHERE THEY BELONG

Eleven former city officials of Atlanta have been convicted on various charges of municipal graft and corruption and there are nine other former municipal officers facing like charges.

The State of Georgia has a statute imposing chain gang sentences and a heavy fine for all such offenders and it is a pity that such a law is not embodied in the code of all the States.

For many years past, Atlanta had enjoyed (?) the reputation of having the most corrupt gang of politicians in her city hall of any municipality in the South coast. At last the decent and honest citizenship of the town made up its mind to get rid of the crooks and scoundrels and at the recent election a whole-scale clean-up resulted, the whole bunch of grafters and corruptions being booted out of office.

What has been done in Atlanta can be done in every State county, city and town where there is evidence that men elected to positions of honor and trust are abusing the confidence reposed in them by the electorate. Only requires courage, determination and co-operation on the part of the men and women who stand for law, order and decency. When united effort is made to put grafters and crooks—big or little—out of office it is an easy job.

Atlanta has set an example. Let it be followed where official deception may exist. In chain gangs is where all unfaithful officials belong.

BAR ASSOCIATION AND DISBARMENT

The disbarment of attorneys has been committed to the courts, which have had sole authority to admit lawyers to practice. The qualifications are mental and moral character.

Lawyers being the greatest of unbonded trustees, having the confidence and secrets of mankind, in a degree as does the doctor, and having possession and power over money and property and other things which constitute the happiness and unhappiness of man, they have a great responsibility. A proper regard for these things demands, for the protection of client, the public and their colleagues, a careful scrutiny of an applicant's moral character in addition to his mental equipment and learning.

Therefore, the admission of one to practice law is the granting of a life privilege which ought to be withdrawn unhesitatingly if the trust be abused. A lawyer is an officer of the court; he is the greatest intermediary between the people who have law business and the Court, the Court is bound to trust him almost implicitly, and he must never betray his trust. So, and the grave question of disbarment one becomes a very disagreeable one to his fellows, who assist the Court in the hearing, and to the Court, which must pronounce the fatal words which deprive him of a life of study and the means of living.

It is said that the Mississippi Bar Association wants the legislature to confer the power upon it to disbar attorneys. We think the members who advocate it are unwise. Probably a constitutional amendment may be necessary to deprive the court of the power to sit over its own officers. At any rate, we do not understand what condition however trying, could induce the Association to desire to assume this very delicate, disagreeable and grave responsibility. Their service in presenting lawyers to the Court, as a kind of impeachment body, is recognized and approved—even demanded by some one injured by unprofessional dealing, but the power to hear and determine, and enforce orders respecting disbarment, should be left with the judges.

Picayune High School Band Program Over WDSU A Success

The Picayune High School Band rendered an excellent program over WDSU in New Orleans, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The boys received numerous telephone calls and telegrams from friends in Picayune and several places. The program "came in" good over radios in Picayune where large groups assembled to listen to Picayune's own sons entertain them.

JANITOR STARTS ALARM.

being in the process of being cleared. The company has thousands of young trees or nursery stock which it planted last winter and which will be transplanted next winter.

It is the purpose of the company to steadily increase its acreage and investment. Results obtained from the 100 trees planted as an experiment exceeds the most enthusiastic expectations of the directors.

It is likewise the purpose of the company to increase the production of the tung nuts in Jackson county among the independent land owners and farmers. The company has now under consideration a plan whereby substantial and deserving farmers of proven ability may be assisted financially in the production of this crop.

The only obligation of the independent grower to the company is to contract in the vicinity of Pascagoula its own crushing or reduction plant whereby the crude products, consisting of the nuts will be reduced to the oil and the oil refined for market. Tung oil is an essential in the manufacturing of paints, varnishes and other products. At the present time virtually all tung oil used in this country is produced in China.

A colony of Danish farmers has been established at Hurley, in the northeastern section of Jackson county. Other Danes will follow later. The new settlers are a thrifty and energetic people. The colonists have purchased cut-over land from the Lampton interests. They are going into the dairying and poultry business, along with cultivation of the soil. A delegation, accompanied by County Agricultural Agent Franklin, will go to North Mississippi to buy cattle.

Citizens of Pascagoula make it a rule to buy Jackson county food products, so as to keep the money at home and encourage farmers. At a recent dinner given by the Pascagoula Chamber of Commerce, Captain Edmunds of the Coast Guard, all of the food served, except coffee, sugar and flour, bread, was produced in Jackson county.

Mayor John R. Watts of Pascagoula, speaking about improving conditions in the Mississippi Coast, said the most important thing to be done at the present time is to put on a beautification campaign and clean up the whole coast.

The beautification of the coast, if everybody would clean up, paint up and plant shrubbery and flowers, the effect would be marvelous. It would make the coast a modern Garden of Eden and would attract thousands of visitors, many of whom would become permanent residents. People naturally like to look at things beautiful. A few dollars spent for beautification by home owners and land owners would be a splendid investment and would enhance the value of property.

The Bay Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will hold its birthday party Thursday night, May 14, at the Moonlight Inn. Official invitations have been extended other chapters of the Coast district to attend.

"I would do much for the coast. If everybody would clean up, paint up and plant shrubbery and flowers, the effect would be marvelous. A Warning To Candidates

We have been reliably informed that some candidates for county office have been having their campaign literature printed in Chicago and Mobile. There are any number of printing shops in this county that can turn out just as good work as the Chicago or Mobile shops and do it cheaper. If we learn the names of those who are having their work done outside the county and state we shall publish their names and request the voters to pass them up at the primary. We believe that if a candidate is not sufficiently interested in the welfare of his county to have his work done at home that he would make a mighty poor man to elevate to any office. Pass Christian Tarpon.
